PRINCESS PATTERN

A daily guide to cruise activities

SOUTHAMPTON • SATURDAY, JULY 15, 2006 • SEA PRINCESS
Sunrise 4:57am • Sunset 9:21pm • Tonight's dress: Smart Casual

Welcome Aboard!

Captain Julian Burgess was born and raised in East Sussex in Southern England. The fifth in line from a family of seven children, Julian started his nautical career in late 1980 as a Deck Cadet with the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company. After his 4 year apprenticeship sailing mainly in the Cargo Division he transferred to the Passenger ship fleet as Third Officer in 1984. He has since sailed in a number of vessels in the P&O and Princess Fleet, working his way "up the ladder" until his appointment as Captain in February 2004. Julian lives with his wife Sally and daughters Amelia and Madeleine in a 500 year old cottage deep in the Northamptonshire Countryside (Far away from the sea!) When at home his interests, apart from maintaining the house, include golf, skiing, cycling, walking and eating good food.

STATEROOM SAFETY NOTICE

As your safety is our prime concern, we would like to remind you of some important precautions you must take while in your stateroom or on your balcony:

- Never use lighted candles, naked flames or any other burning material either in your stateroom or on your balcony.
- If you smoke, please use the ashtrays provided for your stateroom or balcony and ensure your cigarette is fully extinguished. Please do not smoke in bed or throw any cigars or cigarettes over the ship's side.
- Heated electrical items (such as a curling iron) used in your stateroom should not be left plugged in and unattended. When finished with the item, please ensure it is immediately unplugged.
- The use of irons and non thermostatically controlled Water Heaters is strictly prohibited.
- Do not hang clothing out on the balcony or leave personal items unattended on the balcony. Before retiring for the evening please bring all personal items inside.
- Do not place any items on top of the light fittings.

DRESS CODE

During the day, sportswear and casual clothes are suggested.

Guidelines for wear from 6:00pm and throughout the evening are:

Formal: A dinner jacket or dark business suit for gentlemen and a full length evening gown, cocktail dress or trouser suit for ladies.

Smart Casual: An open-neck shirt and slacks for gentlemen and a dress, skirt and blouse or trouser suit outfit for ladies.

Shorts and T-Shirts are not Permitted in the Dining Rooms.
