

PRINCESS PATTER

A daily guide to cruise activities 🚒

AMSTERDAM, NETHERLAND • SUNDAY, JULY 16, 2006 • SEA PRINCESS Sunrise 5:51am • Sunset 9:54pm • Tonight's Dress: Smart Casual

Welcome to Amsterdam

As the Dutch like to boast, while God made the world, they made the Netherlands. Man's influence here is evidence by the missing Zuider Zee, walled out by the massive 19-mile dike completed in 1932. The flat, marshy swampland that surrounded the original Dutch settlement had disappeared beneath the capital itself, most of whose buildings are supported by an estimated five million wooden piles driven deep into the soggy ground.

Imbued with gezelligheid, a special quality of cozy intimacy, Amsterdam is vibrant, amoral, fascinating, and – above all – alive. You'll enjoy the city's unique flavor as you explore its 700-year-old streets, marvel at its stepped-gable houses, glide down its bustling canals, cross its many bridges, tour its museums, enjoy its gorgeous flowers and shop for everything from diamonds to Delftware.

9am to 11am & 3pm to 5pm Deck 5, Main Atrium

Once you have completed your first Princess cruise, your Captain's Circle membership recognizes cruises from Princess, Sitmar, P&O, Swan Hellenic and Ocean Village. Note you must complete your first Princess Cruise to qualify.
