MAASDAM

CANADA / NEW ENGLAND CRUISE

ARRIVAL: 8:00AM

SUNRISE 4:51AM

SUNSET 8:40PM

ALL ABOARD: 4:30PM

Welcome to Québec City, Québec

Québec City, first known as Kebec, an Amerindian word meaning place where the river becomes narrow, is a city that has embraced its history and has managed to keep it alive. You will find the heritage of the past and energy of contemporary artists and craftspeople highlighted through the many museums, exhibition halls and interpretation centers. Just to walk through Old Town Québec is like taking a path that leads you to the discovery of the history, art, heritage and culture of Québec City as it once thrived many years ago. Québec City is the cradle of French civilization in North America as well as a busy seaport, an important center of services and research and of course the provincial capital. Québec City is almost entirely French in feeling, in spirit, and in language; 95% of the population is Francophone. Many of its 648,000 citizens speak some English, especially those who work in hotels, restaurants, and shops where they deal with Anglophones everyday.

TONIGHT'S DRESS REQUEST

Casual

FROM THE NAVIGATOR

Through the night the Maasdam has been steering various courses to transit the river. Arrival in Quebec is expected at 8:00am. The port of Quebec occupies a stretch of the St. Lawrence River in the vicinity of the mouth of Riviere Saint Charles. Quebec's metropolitan area is made up of four cities; Quebec, Levis, Lauzon and Saint-Foy. Departure will be at 5:00pm and the Maasdam is expected to arrive in Saguaney River approximately 7:00 am, we have 109 mile to run to reach the entrance of the river.
