MAASDAM

CANADA / NEW ENGLAND CRUISE
SUNRISE 5:40 AM SUNSET 9:40 PM

Captain Arjen van der Loo

Time Change

Because we are entering into a new time zone, tonight Sunday/Monday, all ship's clocks will be set FORWARD one hour at 2:00 am. Please adjust your clocks and watches accordingly before retiring.

Born in Nieuwer-Amstel, a village wedged between Amsterdam and Schiphol Amsterdam International Airport, Arjen saw for the first time, ships sailing through the harbor. His father took him regularly to the Sea-Locks near IJmuiden, where the large ships transit from the salty North Sea to the fresh water harbor of Amsterdam. He was often looking at the horizon and wondering what was behind it. Following 4 years of Nautical College in Vlissingen, the Netherlands, Arjen first set out to sea on board an expedition vessel, exploring the west coast of Africa and the Orinoco River delta in Venezuela. After his return he joined Holland America Line as a 4th officer. Climbing up the ranks rapidly, Arjen enjoyed sailing on many of the longer Grand Voyages, including 6 World cruises on board the s.s. Rotterdam, m.s. Rotterdam and m.s. Amsterdam. When not sailing the seven seas, he loves to read books, meet his friends, cook delicious meals, train for a marathon next year, master his pc, enjoy wine tasting at the vineyards surrounding his house and of course spending quality time with his wife Holly and their 15 month old German Shepard puppy.

TONIGHT'S DRESS REQUEST

Formal

FROM THE NAVIGATOR

After departure from Quebec, we proceeded Northeast continuing out of the St. Lawrence River. We will proceed past a more rural side of French Canada. We will then drop off the pilots early tomorrow morning. Once we have dropped off the pilots we will set Northerly courses to Peninsula De Caspe, once we are round this point we set a Southerly course down to Prince Edward Island, we expect to be passing under the Confederation Bridge at around 8:00am and be docked at 11:30 am.

WELCOME RECEPTION

Captain Arjen van der Loo and Hotel Manager Dirk Verhey van Wijk cordially invite you to join them and the Senior Staff for this evening's reception. Please enter the Rembrandt Lounge from the starboard side on Promenade Deck 7. The reception begins at 4:45pm for Early Seating guests and 7:00pm for Main Seating.
