WELCOME TO GEORGE TOWN, GRAND CAYMAN

Less than 10 years ago Grand Cayman was a sleepy British colony. Its only trademarks were its peaceful way of life and its magnificent beaches. Another distinction of the island was, and still is, its freedom from taxation, granted by King George III as a reward for the rescue of everyone in the famous "Wrecking of Ten Ships", which took place off the east coast of Grand Cayman in 1788. This tax-exempt status has attracted over 450 banks to the island. Don't be surprised if you can only distinguish a few banks, because the majority are not full service but are dedicated to offshore banking. The capital, George Town, stands at the west end of the island. This is where you will find the main concentration of restaurants and shops and the unique black coral which is a feature of a Grand Cayman shopping spree. Grand Cayman is listed amongst the top four diving locations in the world, but remember "take only pictures and leave the bubbles". If you prefer to stay on top of the water, then Seven Mile Beach is the place to make for. Or enjoy a few hours in "Hell" - a tiny island village. If you mail your postcards there, they'll bear the postmark "Hell".

From the Navigator

During the night we sailed on an east to southerly course towards the Cayman Islands. A local pilot boat will assist us in finding the best anchorage and we expect to drop anchor at 9:00 am and soon after our tender service will commence ferrying you to and from the island. The ms Maasdam will heave anchor at 5:00 pm and set sail for Ocho Rios, Jamaica.

Environmental Awareness

Holland America takes an aggressive approach to minimize the use of packaging, especially plastics, and to substitute re-usable and/or biodegradable alternatives for plastics whenever possible. For example, the ships use re-usable dishware and glassware or paper cups, paper bags, glass and metal containers and require packaging reduction from suppliers. Any plastic waste that is generated is saved for approved shore disposal or recycling.

Be A Movie Star

A great place to check your stocks, catch up on the news, send and receive email, send a video mail to your friends back home, or just to have fun surfing the internet at sea. It's so easy! Stop by the Internet Center on Upper Promenade Deck, 8. Don't forget to turn in your video mail raffle ticket!

We Care

At the end of your cruise you will receive a survey of your cruise experience. But if you would like to share any comments with us now, please complete the "We Care Card" which has been placed inside your Directory and return it to the Front Office.

Express Check-Out

Avoid lines at the end of your cruise. Settle your account in advance by registering your credit card with the Front Office, Promenade Deck 7.
